Chapter 1 by Dave

When you wake up in the morning (and it's not a holiday) you suspect a normal day , and walk out the door like nothing else. Unless your just died and your being chased.

Jake jumped out the window as fast as he could and landed in a bush. His first day of summer vacation was just chaos. His parents got divorced 3 weeks ago his pool got a huge hole in it. Also his dad just got killed by this crazy man and his henchman , and was now chasing him a 11 year old being chased by four people. He was now by a coffee shop called Cafe' de la historia. In spanish that meant coffee of the history. He'd biked down this same street many times but never seen it. He looked behind him he couldn't see the bad guy's so he went in the coffee shop. As he closed the door the people were about 1 miles away. When he entered nobody was in there and for a fact he knew lot's of people in New York liked coffee. BOOM CRACK! He saw a table knocked over and there stood a man in a green T-shirt and shorts the bad guys just entered. The man in the T-shirt grabbed my hand kicked a bad guy and flew to a door. I didn't know why this man was helping me but, it seemed like I was about to have an adventure.
